

I believe the public should be able to subscribe to a la carte channels. I also believe we should not be penalized for this service by being charged higher prices.